

Grant Approvals 2004

Youngster takes a break from after-school activities at the 14th & Chestnut Community Center in Terre Haute. The multiservice center, an ecumenical ministry of the United Methodist Church in partnership with the neighborhood, is a grantee of the Wabash Valley Community Foundation. The after-school programs include the Grumbling Tummies' Café, where neighborhood children get warm, nutritional dinners during the school year and are offered breakfast and lunch in the summer.
